Why I Wrote This Letter

As I write this, I'm unrepentantly in love with a young woman and right from the time she said yes to my manifesto, I explained to her that I don't believe in sex before marriage.

My reason is simple – sex before marriage is fornication which is still a SIN!

Moreover, it's not in keeping with the New Life I have in Christ Jesus which gives me dominion over sin.

Therefore, we set some boundaries and agreed to principles that will guide us towards chastity as long as our courtship lasts. The book, What's the Big Deal About Kissing? was written, partly, as a guide for our relationship.

However, as we grow stronger in our affection for each other, the temptation to break those boundaries and disregard the principles has been on the increase. In response to that situation, I wrote her this letter.

So, I actually didn't write it for you!

However, when I realized that you and many other youths like us may be in our situation, I took permission from her to publish this letter as a mini book.

If it blesses you, let me know and do well to freely share with others!

1 The Craving for Intimacy

I write to you today because the temptation for intimate body contact between us has been on the increase and it's scary. It's scary because if it's not checked, Satan may swift us.

However, I must say that it gives me great joy because within those first few weeks we said yes to each other for a purposeful relationship, I was not sexually attracted to you and it gave me concern – am I marrying a woman I won't desire bedmatic pleasure from?

But that's in the past. Now, I have a raving attraction to you!

I dare say: the fact that we are sexually attracted to each other is the Lord's doing. It's crucial for the birth of Kamso, Apaeka and their four siblings. It is God's design that we benefit from the pleasure that comes from sex; that's why He planted the desire in us.

Truth is that I don't have a memory of how great it feels to have sex; but I'm sure it won't be a bad thing. Orgasm has been described as one of the most pleasurable experiences created by God and I look forward to getting it from you.

That's why I learn whatever I can learn to acquaint myself with the technique on what I must do so that I won't be totally lost on the day of action.

I'm not saying you should start consuming junks in the name of learning. They will fire up your sex desires; some of them gave me huge troubles.

Only God delivered me!

Variety in Our Sexy Style

The most popular argument I have heard for promiscuity of men is monotony. Although I don't totally agree with them, I made up my mind that since I have no plans whatsoever to sleep with another woman that is not my wife, I will put variety in my sex life.

In the spirit of variety, we shall have sex in all kinds of places – in the kitchen, bathroom, staircase, car, garage and wherever possible, provided utmost privacy is ensured.

We shall try out different styles and different seasons just to spice up our sex life and ensure it doesn't become monotonous and boring!

Although, we have not tasted our sex prowess like some persons advice, I have no doubt that we have the capacities to sexually satisfy each other.

My simplest and best reason is that the Bible says God delights in every detail of our lives and perfects all that concerns us.

This truth is why I know that He is not only interested in making me a revolutionary media mogul who will establish His kingdom on the earth, he also delights in ensuring I have great sex life and He is perfecting everything about us so that His plans of great sex for us will become reality.

My point so far is that our urge for sex is not of the devil; it's God's design for our pleasure and procreation.

Therefore, we shall have great, regular and pleasurable sex!

3 God Knows Our Konji

As good and natural as this sexual urge is, the fact that we are not yet married means we have to exercise caution because God's will for us is our sanctification; that is, we abstain from sexual immorality.

Apostle Paul, knew that the young Timothy had the Holy Spirit and anointing , but still told him to flee from sin common to young people. Paul prayed for him concerning different issues; but prescribed fleeing as a way out of sins like sexual temptation.

“Run from temptations that capture young people.” (2Ti m 2:22 CEV)

Some people don't bother about running away because they are the righteousness of God in Christ. To them, no matter what they do, God doesn't count on it. One of such people who is supposed to be a preacher told me that if I commit fornication, God doesn't see it.

I lack the capacity to believe such crap in the name of gospel and I implore you to accept it as a joke.

Make no mistakes about this: I believe in Jesus Christ and the power of His death and resurrection. Jesus Christ died on the cross and took away our sins and that's why the sins of my fathers and ancestors are of no consequence in my life.

That's why witches and wizards have no atom of power over me. I don't bother myself about them because they are inconsequential in my life.

The death of Jesus Christ is payment for our sins; not in any way a license for sin and loose life. In fact, because of His sacrifice, we are expected to live above sin; not excusing sins away!

I mean, He has given us all that we need for life and godliness and He is at work in us to do His will. He equally killed the power of sin over us. Living in sin is inexcusable!

That's why we are instructed, “Don't be immoral in matters of sex. That is a sin against your own body in a way that no other sin is. You surely know that your body is a temple where the Holy Spirit lives. The Spirit is in you and is a gift from God. You are no longer your own. God paid a great price for you. So use your body to honor God.” (1Cor 6: 15-18 CEV)

Please pay attention to this truth from the great man of God, Pastor Bankie on sex, from his book, Great Faith Can be Yours. “See, the truth is that sexual immorality leaks the spirit and few things kill spiritual ability like it. If you doubt me, remember David and Solomon; in both lives the only problems they had with the Lord stemmed from leakage of spiritual power from desire for women.”

Konji Shall Not Rule Us

My dear, we have more than enough capacity to please God in our ways! We have more than what we need to lead a sinless life.

How do I know?

“We have everything we need to live a life that pleases God. It was all given to us by God's own power, when we learned that he had invited us to share in his wonderful goodness. God made great and marvelous promises, so that his nature would become part of us. Then we could escape our evil desires and the corrupt influences of this world.” (2Pe 1:3-4CEV)

If we currently have not demonstrated true power over sin as God has made available to us, it's our fault! It's simply because we have failed to do the needful. We have refused to do our part. It's not because God lacks the capacity to help us; it's because we have failed to activate His provision.

Akum, God is aware of the urge we have for each other and He is not sorry for putting it there now. However, He says to us through Apostle Paul:

“Brojid and Bae, you belong to God, so keep away from all these evil things. TRY YOUR BEST TO PLEASE GOD AND TO BE LIKE HIM. Be faithful, loving, dependable, and gentle. (1Tim 6:11 CEV Emphasis mine)

Our primary craving in life is that God will look down on earth, tap angel Mike and say, “This Brojid & Bae are my beloved lovers in whom I am well pleased.”

That's why it's important that we ensure that the blessing of sexual desire God has gifted us doesn't become our undoing.

I therefore, suggest that while we wait for the right and godly time to benefit from the sex desires and assets God has built in us, we must not only please God but live as an example to other Christians.

Apostle Paul didn't just tell us not to allow our feelings control us, he gave us a strategy. Please, slowly read him, paying attention to the words in bold typeface.

Don't be controlled by your body. Kill every desire for the wrong kind of sex. Don't be immoral or indecent or have evil thoughts... (Col 3:5 CEV).

Loaded in this verse of the scripture is the truth you and I need to successfully fight temptation for sex. Let me show you...

Killing the Desire for Sex

First point I want you to notice is that it's possible for people's body to control them. That's why you find church people get unwanted pregnancy and pastors give church members belle.

Perhaps there are even tongue talking Christians who are controlled by their bodies. I do not judge them, but many of them have resigned to that situation, thinking that they can't do anything about it.

What a pity!

Some in their failure have been teaching heresy, excusing the sin that is clearly condemned in the Scriptures. But we must never join them! Instead of joining them, we shall “Kill every desire for the wrong kind of sex...”

We may not know all that is required to execute this killing for now; but one truth you should know very clearly is that it can be killed. Our duty is to find the means of doing it and work at it until we have succeeded.

There are many things we can do to put to death the desire for the wrong kind of sex; but for now, I want to suggest a few we must do with immediate effect.

Sex doesn't just happen. It's a product of certain factors but the engine is essentially the mind. The only sex that may not have started from the mind is the one of a rape victim. It's endured; not enjoyed!

That's why we must be careful about what we feed our minds with. Yes, we can't just read anything, listen to any conversation and watch any movie. We must fight any words, thoughts and actions that deposit the seed of sex in our heart.

At some point in my life, I had to stop seeing oyibo movies because of the degree of nudity littered in their movies. As much as I love music which is still my primary means of getting entertainment, I desist from listening to any song that has suggestively dirty language in it.

My reason is very simple: it is foolishness to fire up my urge for sex and expect not to be consumed by it.

Even in our discussion, we have a duty to keep it clean. Don't hesitate to call my attention to stop any line of discussion that plants in your mind craving for sex. If there is any body contact at all from me that plants the desire for sex in you instead of killing it, let me know so that there won't be a repeat of it.

When we crack jokes, it shouldn't be titled towards sex again. No more to jokes that get us feeling horny when we cannot possibly give it expression now. Therefore, next time we feel tempted to go in that direction, please restrain yourself. Baby, believe me I will do likewise.

I understand that such jokes, songs, conversations and movies can hardly drive you to grab me and start pressuring me for sex; but the thing about them is that their effect is very subtle.

Their powerful effects become reality after they have accumulated.

Please understand that once your mind is primed for sex by virtue of conversations, visuals and sounds, what is supposed to be casual will get you turned on.

That's why setting boundaries for each other is not enough. We have to ensure we don't condition our minds and body to break those boundaries.

Let's Converse for Chastity

Again, I have found that the temptation for unwholesome conversation and indiscriminate body contact gets stronger when we meet just to see because we are missing each other than when we meet with an agenda in mind.

That's why I suggest that the last time it happened is the last it should ever happen, at least while we are still single.

Our meeting should as a matter of responsibility be motivated by something important that can't be discussed through chat or phone conversation.

No doubt, we can meet to catch up and so I will take time to look at your eye balls, but that will only be in any of our usual public meeting points.

Our meetings and long calls shall be agenda driven. That way, idle conversations, holding hand and angle 35° hugging will be stifled out.

We won't have time for conversations that fire up our urge for sex. Right now, I'm drawing up discussion points and by God's power, I will direct our conversations so that it's focused on useful issues not mere conversation.

Our focus shall be ensuring that our conversations enrich us, revitalize us and spur us to become better and take actions for our better future.

I understand we made arrangement for long and unrestrained phone conversation because we want to get to know and familiarize ourselves with each other. While I don't claim we have fully succeeded in that, I must say that we have achieved some degree of success.

Nne, we shall tone it down seriously, especially as it concerns matter of sex. Please understand that I am not saying we can never talk about sex. We shall, Akum!

Waiting till marriage to talk about it is waiting too long. We shall talk about them at the right time and in good environment with utmost caution concerning our language choice.

We shall equally, by all means, avoid meeting in isolated places. If we must, it must be for obviously unavoidable reasons. My reason is that isolated places are not a bad place to stay; they are just a convenient place to set ourselves up for intense sexual temptation.

I don't want to talk about kissing, I did extensive discussion on the matter which I equally shared in the book, What's the Big Deal About Kissing? If you seem to have forgotten the core of my message in the book, please get it and read again.

Our sexual urges are God's blessing for our pleasure. However, there is an appropriate time to give that urge expression.

Now, that we are courting is most certainly the wrong time! That's why it's better that we wait for that time when even Angel Mike will look down from heaven and be nodding, delivering to us inspiration for better performance.

God has supplied for us all that we need to lead a life that is pleasing to Him. Our duty now is to put in the required efforts on our part to live to His standards for us.

In this matter of killing sexual desires, we must not fire each other up for sex with our words, body contacts and actions. We must provoke one another unto good works by ensuring we call each other to order in our weaknesses.

We must cease from tempting each other in every way possible.

If we have thoughts of sex, we shall confess it, pray about it and take deliberate actions to ensure that the thoughts don't materialise.

PS: Our quest for chastity requires our mutual efforts. We shall help each other stand firm and honour God with our bodies.

Almighty God, the father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we present ourselves before you once again, thanking you for the love we have found in each other.

We understand that your will for us is to live in a manner pleasing to you. We confess that we want to live in purity of thoughts and actions.

We want to honour you with our bodies, in our thoughts and words. May you strengthen us with wisdom and power to live in sexual purity.

Help us understand each other better that we may not become source of temptation to each other. When we get weak, please strengthen us. Help us learn how to balance being free with each other and provoking each other to sin.

Because sin has been crucified on the cross with Christ Jesus, sin shall not have dominion over us. We live above sexual immorality of any kind and walk about the devil.

Our love for each shall never abate; as it grows, it get stronger by the day; lust shall not be found in us in Jesus name!

Yours Forever

*Akum, I love you with the entirety of my being.
I want you and no other girl whatsoever.
I want to be yours forever!
When I kneel down to pray,
I beg God to make you mine forever.
We shall honour God with our body, Amen!*

Your Baby,

PS: We shall read this letter again and again to bring to our consciousness what we believe to be true when our thinking is intact and when Konji comes calling, we shall go back to read it again.
